NEW WAYS OF RECRUITMENT

In German nursing homes there is a shortage of qualified employees which leads to great personnel bottlenecks. To challenge this problem many facilities recruit their employees abroad. On behalf of our clients we headhunt a selection of qualified employees. Along with a permanent employment as direct hire with a competitive salary Pro Select is able to give you an intercultural preparation for your new homeland. We will accompany and support you on your path into your new job.

If you yearn for a change or a new start, ask for your personal consultation without obligation. Together with you we can check your career opportunities.
